A Pronoun replaces a noun. The pronoun is used when we don't know a more specific name or word for the noun. Indefinite pronouns are used to refer to people, places, or things that are unknown or not stated. Indefinite pronouns use the singular form of verbs (like he, she , or it).

Example: Nobody ever gives me candy at the bank. Does anyone know the answer?

Fill in the blank to match the indefinite pronoun with the sentence.
