A preposition is a word that shows a relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and some other word in the sentence. Location prepositions show where something or someone is in relation to something else.

Example: Sarah is next to Scott. Eric is between the wall and the chair.

Circle the prepositions in each sentence

1. The panda is under the chair.
2. There is a fly behind the TV.
3. His arms were around his daughter.
4. The swimming pool is outside, but the hot tub is inside.
5. Throughout Korea people cheered for Kim Yuna.
6. Underneath the ocean there are many interesting species.
7. I went in the house to find the ball inside the closet on the racket.
8. The cat was on top of the house crawling past the chimney.
9. I went by the park and saw two kids playing inside the slide.
